Dinner and a Concert
 Featuring the exciting young German Organist
Theomo Janssen
 Tuesday evening, February 3rd, 2009
Dinner in the Parish Hall at 6:00 pm
Recital in the Church at 7:30 pm
 Christ Episcopal Church
 582 Walnut Street, Macon, GA

The Townsend School of Music and the Townsend-McAfee Institute for Sacred Music Studies at Mercer University will again graciously host our annual Dinner and a Concert event. A delicious Dinner will be provided by the University in the Church Parish Hall for members of our Macon AGO Chapter.

After the dinner, a recital will be presented in the Church on the Fisk organ, Opus 115 (2000). The Recitalist is Theomo Janssen, an exciting young German concert organist on his first American recital tour. Mr. Janssen is director of music and organist of the famed St. Ludger Church in Norden, Germany, where he plays on a renowned Arp Schnitger organ from 1691. For his Macon recital Mr. Janssen will play works of J. S. Bach and north German composers.

Dr. John Simons of the Townsend-McAfee Institute and Dr. Robert Parris, will be our hosts for this event.

Each AGO member may bring one guest to the Dinner which begins at 6:00 pm. The recital, however, will begin at 7:30 pm. and is free of charge and open to the public. AGO members are encouraged to help publicize the recital and invite their friends to the Concert portion of this event. Christ Church is sponsoring the recital.

To RSVP, please contact Nancy Joiner by phone (478-987-4641 home or 478-397-1108 cell), by email (njoiner@windstream.net) or mail the reservation slip below. If you call and no one answers, please leave a message.
